Coldwell Banker Howard Perry & Walston

Mark Parker is excited to be the Vice President of Sales and Co-Managing Broker-in-Charge for Coldwell Banker Howard Perry & Walston, Midtown office. Mark has been fortunate to be in the Real Estate Industry for 22 years and a member of the Raleigh Regional Association of Realtors since 1999. He was a top producing sales associate until 2009 and has been a Broker-in-Charge ever since. As a manager, he acts with the understanding that his role has an objective of developing and encouraging others to succeed by doing the right tasks...every day...every week...every month...to become the best they can possibly be.

Mark has been actively involved with RRAR and is excited about the opportunity to serve on the BOD again, if elected. He has served in the following capacities: TRLA Dean 2013, RRAR Secretary Treasure 2014, RRAR President Elect 2015, RRAR President 2016, GAC chair 2013, Finance chair 2014, RPAC chair 2015, Communications and Public Relations Chair 2018, Global Chair 2021. He also served on NC Realtor and NAR BOD and is currently a NC RPAC Trustee.

Mark has had the good fortune to have lived in 6 countries on 4 different continents, including being born in Zimbabwe, lived in Malawi, South Africa, Belgium, England and Brazil. It was the experience of living in different countries that gave him tremendous opportunities to learn about many different cultures and social diversities. That is the core of what has made him the person he is today.

Upon graduating from high school in Brazil in 1987, he moved to United States of America to attend Elon University where he graduated with a degree in Business Administration in 1991. Upon graduating from Elon, Mark has worked as a Stoke Broker as well as owned several small businesses, including 2 music retail stores and a residential construction company. In August of 1999 he joined Fonville Morisey Realty. Mark has been recognized as Fonville Morisey Realty Company Wide and Office Wide top selling associate. He was also recognized by the Triangle Business Journal as one of the Top Selling agents in the area, ranking as high as 17th out of all individual agents in the Triangle area.

Mark also believes in giving back and is still involved with the Raleigh Regional Association. Mark would really appreciate the confidence of your vote for nomination to the RRAR BOD. He is excited for the opportunity to give back and serve for such an amazing Association. It would be an honor for him to have your vote! Thank you!
